Have you paused to consider the effect of conditions as they are today upon your future happiness and success? Speaking generally, every one is making more money than ever before—but the all-important question is how it is being spent. If you are not spending a fair portion of your income making your surroundings comfortable and livable, you are inviting misery and disaster later: besides missing a vital part of the worthwhile things of the present. A timely act would be to call and inspect the snappy, durable home furnishings assembled and now being offered by us on attractive terms and at prices that should command your immediate attention.
